Welcome, Visitors and New Parishioners!

It is good for me – and for all of us – that you are here with us today. I hope that it is good for you, too. If there is anything, and I mean anything, that the parish or I can do for you, we will try our best.

Becoming Catholic

Brenda Langdon was baptized last night at the Easter Vigil. She was confirmed and received First Holy Communion. A year or so ago Brenda wondered if being Catholic would be right for her, and wondered what it would take for her to become a Catholic. Now she knows.

Can We Pray for You?

We'd like to pray with you. Phone or email your prayer intentions to us. Parishioners will open their emails and listen to their answering machines at home, and will pray with you in mind. When you pray, you will not pray alone.

Helping to Heal the Harmed

If there is something that the Catholic Church or one of its priests has done to you that has harmed you or your relationship with God, I would welcome the opportunity to help undo it, resolve it or mend it.

Looking For Something

Some are looking for something, but not sure what. Some seek a new spark or vigor. Some want to meet other people who believe. Some are just hoping for a weekend away from a hurried, hassled and hectic life. They find each other – and God – on a retreat weekend. It's called "Christ Renews His Parish." It happens right here at the parish.

Serving in the Armed Forces

Home on leave? Have a loved one in the military? We hope you heard the prayer we prayed today: "For our men and women serving in the Armed Forces: may world leaders work to bring military personnel of all the nations back to their families safe and sound and whole."

Looking for Work or Workers

If you are looking for work or looking for workers, I'd be pleased to be able to pass on your resume or your opening to others who'd be interested or who might interest you. Take courage. Keep hope. Be grateful. Stay humble. Grace happens.

Happy Easter!

Hope you get lots of chocolate eggs – with either peanut butter or opera cream inside.
